Type: Face to Face

Discover how the town changed during Victoria's reign at an informative talk with Keiran Ann Keilty on Wednesday 24th July, 10:30 - 11:30.

A whistle-stop journey through the years and how the Victorian period changed Tynemouth. Many of the sights you maybe familiar with today begin their story during her reign.

There is a small charge of £4 which is payable in advance. Tea and coffee available on the day.

Places are limited - please Book Here
