

When liver cancer is found early it can often be cured.

A quick and painless surveillance scan every 6 months helps find liver cancer. If you have serious liver disease, don't miss out. It's important to go every time, even if you feel well and your liver disease isn't causing problems.

www.livercanceruk.org/find-it-early